DOUBLE TRIALS

Should the verdict of a jury in a criminal case be final—that is, of course admitting the right of appeal—or shall we drift into the habit of trying the case all over again in the forum of public opinion?

The Hauptmann case is one very much in point and well illustrates what I am trying to make clear. If injustice has been done of course the situation is entirely different and merits action. But when no evidence has been adduced to controvert that given in court, it is my opinion that we are drifting into a very dangerous habit in attempting to nullify the conclusion of guilt reached by 12 men.

Establishing such a precedent is dangerous and strikes a vital blow at our judicial system. It is argued that the evidence against Hauptmann was wholly circumstantial. That is true, but the law says such evidence shall be admitted and is of sufficient import. If so viewed by a jury, to fasten guilt upon a defendant and forfeit his life. If the sentiment of the people is such that it does not believe a man should be hanged or electrocuted on that class of evidence, then the law should be changed to conform therewith. But until we discard circumstantial evidence as conclusive of guilt, we are forced to abide by the mandates of the law.

The time is rapidly approaching when Hauptmann must pay the supreme penalty for the murder of the Lindbergh baby. Desperate efforts have been made in his behalf, principally by the governor of New Jersey, who has sought to discredit the testimony of many of the witnesses who appeared against the German. It would seem that the position of Governor Hoffman calls for efforts to uphold the law.

Deputy Sheriff
On Way Back
With Prisoners

MARTINEZ, March 28.—With three prisoners in custody, Deputy Sheriff Ralph Harrison and Edward A. Crist are on their return trip to Martinez from E. Paso, Texas. It was learned in a letter received today by Sheriff John A. Miller. Mrs. Crist also is with them.

Harrison wrote that they had obtained Clyde Howell, 24, and had picked up Roy Winans, 26, at Hillsboro and Mrs. Winans at Arroyo. All three were placed in the El Paso jail and the return trip was started Friday morning, leaving at 6 o'clock and returning by way of Globe and Phoenix. Harrison said they expected to arrive in Martinez Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Winans and Howell are wanted on felony charges of grand theft. They are claimed to be involved in more than 200 chicken and turkey thefts.

Mystery House
Blaze Problem
To Fire Laddies

SAN JOSE, March 28.—UP—Firemen rushed up stairways that ended suddenly in blank walls, pushed against panels which suddenly opened to reveal hidden rooms, and lost themselves in a maze of passageways today in attempting to fight a fire today in the "house of mystery," the home built by the late eccentric Sarah Winchester in the Santa Clara hills.

Despite the handicaps of trying to reach a blaze in a rambling structure spread over several acres and having at least 160 rooms, the firemen succeeded in confining the flames to a paint house with damage less than $5000.

Now a museum open to visitors at a much reduced price, the Winchester house was constructed by an eccentric woman who believed she would die the minute she stopped building.

THE WEATHER

Forecasted showers and cooling and tomorrow fresh westerly wind.

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA

Forecasted with showers today and tomorrow. Little change in temperatures.

Mad Patient Attacks Two; Kills Himself

STOCKTON, March 28.—UP—Charles W. Myers, 66, employee of the Stockton State Hospital, was critically injured and Bere Murray, a patient, seriously hurt today when Oscar Borgenson, a patient, ran amuck in the hospital butcher shop. Borgenson committed suicide.

Although unable to obtain statements from the two injured men, hospital authorities tentatively reconstructed details of the tragedy. It was believed Borgenson, a ship's butcher who was committed to the hospital from San Francisco a year ago, suffered a sudden mental relapse and with a hammer battered the heads of Myers and Murray as they worked with him in the hospital butcher shop. Borgenson was working as a patient today in the shop. Murray was assigned as his assistant.

Mrs. Millie Reynolds, dining room attendant, found Myers lying in a corridor connecting the butcher shop with the dining room. Murray was discovered in the butcher shop, brandishing a butcher knife. Borgenson rushed from the butcher shop to the dormitory canteen nearby, where he dived beneath a bed and slashed his throat. He died almost immediately.

MANY FLEE IN PATH OF RIVER RISE

BY UNITED PRESS
The muddy crest of the swollen Ohio river slipped through Louisville, Ky., Saturday in its last rush on Evansville, Ind., and Cairo, Ill., where lowland families prepared to flee their homes.

Meanwhile relief agencies in Cincinnati worked around the clock to care for 15,500 persons homeless by the waters of the Ohio. In the New England and Pennsylvania areas, municipal and state authorities joined to reclaim the silt-covered homes abandoned to the swirling flood waters last week. A drop in temperatures temporarily checked the swelling of the Mississippi in Wisconsin and Minnesota.

RIVERFRONT HELD
The crest of the Ohio, lapped against the wharves and riverfront warehouses of Louisville Saturday, but the business district, high above the waters, was out of danger.

Lowland residents downstream trooped into the hills. Workers in Evansville, Ind., made a last-minute effort to reinforce levees smashed by ice jams a month ago. The dike system provides protection against a river stage of 45 feet, but the swish of the yellow water was only a foot from the top, and a final stage of 45.5 feet was expected by Sunday or Monday.

STOCK IS SAVED
Upstream at Aurora, Ind., the waters crept relentlessly up Main street and merchants rushed their stock to higher ground.

The river was up to 41.7 feet at Uniontown, Ky., and a crest of 46 (Continued On Page 8)

Rum Control Plan To Be Acted Upon

SAN FRANCISCO, March 28.—UP—Representatives of the Local Option League and the California League of Municipalities agreed today to meet in Fresno April 2 to attempt to straighten out divergent demands for a local option constitutional amendment.

A state legislative liquor control committee referred the local option problem back to the organizations after failing to reconcile the two positions. The Local Option League wants an amendment to give municipalities the right to vote to legalize or outlaw both on-sale and off-sale types of liquor licenses. The Municipalities' League favors optional restrictions on the "on sale" licenses—those permitting sale of liquor by the drink—but would leave the off-sale—those permitting sale by the bottle—to the state to regulate.

The legislative committee headed by Sen. Ralph Swing, San Bernardino, also was in a quandary over taxation provisions of a proposed amendment which would transfer liquor control from the State Board of Equalization to a special board of alcoholic control.

$40,000 Damages

For Small Boy

MARTINEZ, March 28.—Damages of $40,000 were asked today in a suit filed in superior court by Mrs. Catherine L. Payne, on behalf of her 4-1/2-year-old son, John Herbert Payne, as the result of an accident in Richmond this month.

Wilfred R. Yates, driver of a delivery truck, and the Bayle La Costa company, owner of the vehicle, are named defendants.

Mrs. Payne alleges that on March 5, as her son was crossing the street on his tricycle, he was struck by the delivery truck and suffered a fractured thigh, injury to the abdomen and groin.

Attorneys T. M. Carlson and Robert Y. Collins represent the plaintiff.

Italy Troops Occupy Three New Positions

ASMARA, Sunday, March 29.—UP—Italian troops today occupied two strategic centers in Northern Ethiopia Socota and Debaroch, giving Italy complete military domination over vast stretches on the northern front as well as control of caravan commerce between Adis Ababa and the Lake Tana and Gojjam regions.

Both cities were occupied without a shot fired. Socota is 44 miles west of Lake Ashangi. Debaroch is an important commercial center on the southern tip of Semien.

Toys, Clothing
Are Collected
By Boy Scouts

More than two truckloads of used clothes and toys were collected by Richmond Boy Scouts yesterday morning between nine and 11 o'clock.

City Councilman Frank Tiller, member of the executive board, directed the drive.

Clothing and toys were taken in private machines to the Fox theater where the clothing was sent to the Red Cross for distribution to eastern flood zone sufferers.

Toys collected by the scouts will be turned over to local firemen for repair and painting. These toys will then be distributed to needy children next Christmas.

JAIL PROBE DOCUMENTS GIVEN JURY

MARTINEZ, March 28.—After listening to the reading of a seemingly endless stack of documents, the law enforcement committee of the Luis Pedrizzetti grand jury decided late this afternoon to have another meeting next week to correlate all evidence heard concerning alleged laxity at the county jail.

At next week's meeting the jury will listen to witnesses who will tell their stories of what purportedly happened at the county jail prior to the time five Federal prisoners were withdrawn from the county jail after an anonymous letter had been written to a Federal judge in San Francisco charging that prisoners were given the run of the jail.

MASS OF EVIDENCE
Today Melvin Myatt, special investigator appointed by District Attorney Francis P. Healey read and presented to the jurors a mass of documents from county prisoners and others having contact with the county jail.

No witnesses were called before the investigators as the entire session—from ten this morning until four this afternoon—was devoted exclusively to the written reports.

MANY STATEMENTS
It is understood that these documents included statements of the five Federal prisoners removed from the county jail last week, women prisoners, civilians and jailers who attended a dinner at the jail.

Healey, it is understood, did not appear before the jury. Myatt kept rushing in statements typed by stenographers for the district attorney. It was said that the stenographer (Continued On Page 8)

Wife Of Hanged Man Is Handed Prison Sentence

SACRAMENTO, March 28.—UP—Mrs. Agn Hall's loyalty and devotion to a husband whose life she took for two slayings led her to prison today.

In the Sacramento County court she was sentenced to spend from one to five years in the women's prison at Tehachap on a charge of smuggling firearms into Folsom State Prison in a plot to aid the escape of her husband, George Hall.

The plot failed and Hall was hanged Friday for two Yreka slayings.

Striving hard to keep her composure, Mrs. Hall came into court today to plead guilty to the gun-smuggling charge and to hear her sentence.

Mercy tempered the administration of justice, as District Attorney Otto Babcock moved to have dismissed a second charge of conspiracy to aid a prisoner to escape.

Soviet - Mongol Pact Increases Border Tension

MOSCOW, March 28.—UP—Tension between Russia and Japan over repeated clashes on the border between Outer Mongolia and the Japanese-ruled state of Manchukuo was heightened today by publication of a pact of mutual assistance between Russia and Outer Mongolia.

Under the treaty, Russia, which is a close ally of Outer Mongolia, would come to the latter's aid if it were attacked by Japan.

GRAVE CONCRETE FELT
New border clashes, after a brief period of quiet and during efforts to form a commission to arbitrate the difficulties, caused grave concern here. Russia and Japan exchanged angry protests.

Russia particularly protested a clash yesterday in which it was charged that Japanese Manchukuo cavalrymen were killed.

ALLIANCE REPORTED
The strengthening of the Russian-Mongolian alliance was emphasized at the closing session of the Little Hurai or Congress, similar to a council of ministers, held at Ulan-Bator (Urga), capital of Outer Mongolia.

The council approved the foreign policy of the Mongolian Peoples' Republic, laying particular stress on the mutual assistance agreement.

Local Realtors Pay Honors To National Chief

Nine Richmond realtors yesterday attended a luncheon held at Hotel Leamington in Oakland in honor of National President, Senator Walter Rose of Florida and National Secretary, Herbert Nelson of Chicago.

Reports that the nation will soon experience a building boom were heard from both Rose and Nelson.

Glenn Williamson, State secretary of the organization, was present and as it was his birthday he was signally honored by the group. A large birthday cake was cut and served.

Talks by the distinguished visitors were heard.

Fourteen county realtors occupied two special tables at the luncheon. Richmond realtors in attendance included Bruce Corrie, Mrs. W. H. Sanford, E. E. Bull, Ruby Bryant, Lois MacMillan, J. H. Plate, Taber Diferdint, Reese Hays and Signey Gnag.

The total was swelled largely by Richmond school department contributions of nearly $300. Children, teachers and school employees contributed. Many money is rolling in from this source.

Mrs. Chandler expects that Richmond's quota of $1300 will be reached before the drive ends.

Yesterday the following group of Camp Fire Girls and Jot's Daughters, attired in Red Cross costumes canvassed the local streets seeking contributions.

Charlotte Baldwin, Mary Baldwin, Virginia Casselman, Jean Snodden, Peggy Sanderson, Mary Graham, Patricia Radner, Vivian Mulhens, Fern and Phyllis Haley.

Mrs. Norma Armand arranged for the girls to assist in the drive.

Two Injured In Auto Accident

Two men were injured—one seriously—in an automobile accident yesterday morning in the town of San Pablo.

F. E. Martin, of Alameda, sustained cuts and bruises and possible internal injuries while Ronald MacMillan, 45, of San Francisco, was slightly cut when their cars collided.

The injured were treated at a local hospital.

HAUPTMANN FATE UP TO STATE COURT

CHICAGO, March 28.—UP—Bruno Richard Hauptmann is entitled to another trial. Clarence Darrow said today.

The brilliant criminal attorney, in virtual retirement after a life spent in battling for the under dog, charged that the German carpenter's first conviction was a "farce" and said that Hauptmann "never yet has had a trial in the true sense of American jurisprudence."

ONLY HOPE
TRENTON, N. J., March 28.—UP—Bruno Richard Hauptmann's only chance to escape the electric chair tonight rests with the call of pardons. Governor Harold Hoffman told the United Press an exclusive interview tonight.

The court meets Monday to consider for a second time the case of the convicted murderer of Charles Lindbergh, Jr.

ABANDON EFFORT
The governor said he has done all efforts, except to the court, to aid the German prisoner.

He said he would not attempt to see Dr. John F. "Jaffie" Condon, who passed the $50,000 ransom money and who has been accused by the governor of having told different stories before and during Hauptmann's trial at Flemington, N. J.

Governor Hoffman said the matter of Hauptmann's life or death was not important and that his concern was justice in New Jersey.

"NOT IMPORTANT"
"Whether Hauptmann dies in the electric chair down here," and the governor made a sweeping movement of his hand toward the State prison where the convicted man is held, (Continued On Page 8)

$900 Obtained In Red Cross Campaign Here

More than $900 has been contributed to the campaign of the Richmond Chapter of American Red Cross for funds to aid flood-stricken eastern cities. Mrs. Mattie Chandler, chairman of the drive announced yesterday.

The total was swelled largely by Richmond school department contributions of nearly $300. Children, teachers and school employees contributed. Many money is rolling in from this source.

Mrs. Chandler expects that Richmond's quota of $1300 will be reached before the drive ends.

Yesterday the following group of Camp Fire Girls and Jot's Daughters, attired in Red Cross costumes canvassed the local streets seeking contributions.

WPA WORKERS hurriedly building dikes to protect Virginia's capital city, Richmond, from the swirling waters of the James River. Vast sections suffered from ravaging floods and four deaths in Virginia were added to the growing total of more than 100 throughout 12 States.

The DAILY WASHINGTON MERRY GO ROUND

WASHINGTON, March 28.—E. L. Clements, co-founder of the Townsend movement, did not voluntarily resign from the organization as he and his colleagues announced. He was forcibly ousted.

The secret, behind the scene maneuver which preceded his fall, left all the elements of story-book drama—a young, beautiful, red-headed woman, great public power, big money and cunning personal and political ambitions.

The couple had their start early last winter, when Clements cancelled a radio broadcast that Dr. Francis E. Townsend, originator of the old-age pension formula, was scheduled to make.

Townsend and his intimates placed responsibility for this rebuff at the doorstep of Mrs. Thelma Clements, the 28-year-old, red-headed ex-stenographer whom Clements married in 1934. They accused Mrs. Clements of having set out to deprive Townsend of his radio broadcast.

This rift between the two partners continued to widen as Clements and his wife pushed themselves into the center of the Townsend movement. Townsend, finally, could stand no more of this. He packed his bags and flew back to California.

There he conferred with his attorney, Sheridan Downey, a militant follower of the ex-Senator, Upton Sinclair and the candidate for Lieutenant Governor on the 1936 ticket.

Downey came a secret meeting to the Madison Club in Kansas City on March 9th.

Townsend, Downey, Judge Gomez, Sr. of Oklahoma, the third member of the Townsend board, and a number of state leaders, Clements was not present in person but was represented by his attorney.

After extended discussion it was decided to increase the size of the board by adding two members. Elected to these places were Dr. J. W. Amos, what in heaven's name are you doing, bring along that old basket?

Why good granny, ma, you know how rough the road is over to Aunt Carrie's. I'm gonna tie this here basket under the back end to catch all the nuts an' bolts an' parts!

By Dodd

ON THE golf course, Harvey said to her, "Say Gantler was telling me about that promotion the fellow you've turned loose on Sumit Acres."

"Is that so?" Marianne asked. "What about it?"

"He says Bailey has some connection with that orphanage. He's always getting things done for other orphans in one way or another."

"Anything wrong about that?" Marianne asked casually.

"Oh no—the fellow was reared in an orphanage himself, according to Gantler. But the thing that strikes me funny is that you and Gleason—about as shrewd as they come—would let him put over one of his stunts on you."

Marianne scarcely heard the orphanage. She recalled now that she had never heard him mention anything about a orphanage. Something about a orphanage. Something about a orphanage.

"For heaven's sake Marianne," Mrs. Gantler has spoken to you twice! Harvey's voice was distinctly reproving.

"Oh-h, I beg your pardon," she slipped a hand through her hair and smiled at him.

"The next Sunday rally had to be called off. It began to rain early in the morning and poured steadily all day. Gleason was as glum as an owl on Monday morning. Leonard disappointed. But as Jill said to Marianne:

"No one felt as bad as those orphans. You should have seen them with their eager little faces pressed up to the windows, hoping the rain would stop."

"Why, how do you know?" Marianne asked in surprise.

"Len and I were out at the orphanage in the afternoon."

"How were David and Dickie?" "David wouldn't admit he was disappointed, but tears rolled down Dickie's cheeks. By the way, David asked about you."

"About me?" Marianne nervously fumbled with her letter opener.

"He flipped her notebook open. 'He asked when that good kind lady was coming to see them again.'"

"Did Marianne imagine it or was there sarcasm in Jill's tone? She had certainly suppressed the word 'kind.' But her face, as she sat with her pencil poised, was quite expressionless."

"The magnificent Orphanage," starring Irene Dunne and Robert Taylor, now at the Fox Theatre in a double bill with "The Lawless Nineties"; presents a philosophy that changes the lives of characters.

The lives of a rich young woman and a distinguished surgeon's wife are completely altered by the happy chance discovery of inspiring philosophy that any one could easily follow. The story is by Lloyd C. Douglas, taken from a novel which has held a place for many months on "best seller" lists.

Miss Dunne is presented with a dramatic and at the same time human role, as a young woman blinded by accident, who in her blindness falls in love with the man blind responsible for her plight, Robert Taylor, who recently scored an exclusive hit in "Broadway Melody of 1936," plays opposite as the handsome Bobby Merrick, and Betty Furness, Charlie Butterworth, Ralph Morgan and Sara Haden also have prominent parts.

There's everything that goes to the achievement of a rip-roaring Western, fit to make you jump in your seat with eager anticipation in the colorful, breathtaking episodes of the new Republic picture, "The Lawless Nineties," starring John Wayne and now also on view at the Fox Theatre. Action that hums like a buzz-saw at full speed, employs hard riding unlimited, a bit of romance and smashing climax!

Don't Take Pills For Constipation

Ordinary pills take to relieve constipation merely force a movement of the bowels without making the liver digest its excess bile. That's why the trouble returns in a day or two and you have to swallow more pills. What every constipated person needs is a good liver tonic to cleanse the liver thoroughly, cleanse the digestive system of all foul secretions and at the same time restore the liver to proper working order. When this is done you will no longer have frequent headaches, coated tongue, yellow skin, sour stomach, gas, bilious attacks or other symptoms of constipation and liver trouble. Plantax is made from the juices of harmless medicinal plants—Nature's own remedies—that act in a mild, easy way without weakening or irritating the organs. Try it tonight. Large bottle $1 at any good drug store.

Charges are Moderate

It is well to remember that a beautiful mortuary does not mean high prices, as this firm proves. With all the refinements and comforts to be found here, charges are ever higher than the smallest incomes can easily afford. By including everything in one plainly marked price, we have made it possible for every family to make an appropriate selection without financial hardship.

LIVER BILE—

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Ready to Go

The liver should pour out two quarts of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food cannot digest. It just decays in the bowels. The bowels get clogged. You get constipated. Your stomach and the whole body suffer. You feel tired, run down and the world looks grim.

Laxatives are only makeshifts. A more powerful movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes those good, old Castor Oil Liver Pills to get those two quarts of bile flowing freely and make you feel like a new man. No gentle, yet powerful in making this flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. Stubbornly refuse anything else.

OLD PEOPLE find

Halitosis (bad breath) quickly leads to Listerine, safe antiseptic and deodorant

Either because of stomach dirt, "acids," food fermentation, or the wearing of false teeth, old people frequently have halitosis (bad breath). No wonder others consider them a nuisance.

But now Listerine has found that the regular use of Listerine will often overcome offensive mouth odors due to the fermentation of tiny bits of food on mouth, teeth, or dental plate surfaces.

This safe antiseptic and quick deodorant works quickly. It cleanses mouth, teeth, and gum surfaces. Halts fermentation and putrefaction, a major cause of odors, and then neutralizes the odors themselves.

Try using Listerine every two or three days. So how much more wholesome it leaves your mouth. How it sweetens your breath. Lambert Pharmaceutical Co., St. Louis, Mo.

held in the death house. "doesn't matter much. It doesn't matter much, either, whether he gets a commutation to life imprisonment. All that is not important."

"What is important, however, is the problem of how a simple Bronx carpenter could have known the things that the kidnaper of the Lindbergh baby knew about the Lindbergh home," he added.

And so Hauptmann's fading hopes for life rested tonight with nine men, seven of whom once before refused to save him from the electric chair.

PLEA REJECTED

They are the eight members of the State Board of Pardons who will meet in secret session at 11 A. M. Monday to act on Hauptmann's renewed plea for clemency, and Justice Thomas W. Trenchard, who presided at the Flemington trial.

Seven members of the pardons court rejected Hauptmann's original application for clemency. Governor Harold G. Hoffman, the eighth member, refused to vote.

MANY RUMORS

NEW YORK, March 28.—UP—Rumors of a "new suspect" in the Lindbergh kidnapping case became more prevalent tonight in the face of denials from New Jersey officials.

Unconfirmed reports that a New Jersey official had a suspect under surveillance or in custody have circulated in New York and New Jersey for more than a week. Several New York newspaper editors have been approached by persons offering to sell the story of an alleged confession by the suspect.

Newest addition to rumors was a version that the suspect had been captured in New York under the guise of a kidnapping and that for days he believed he was being held by gangsters and that finally he broke down and admitted his guilt.

Death Claims Tiniest Twin

MARTINEZ, March 28.—Death today had claimed the second of Costa Costa county's tiniest twins. Despite a seven hours battle with an inhalator, Vincent Lucido, son of Mrs. Frank Lucido of Pittsburg, died at an Antioch hospital yesterday afternoon. The boy weighed two pounds. A twin sister, who weighed one and one-half pounds died last Saturday, the day of birth. The boy had been kept in an incubator and was fed with a milk dropper. Hopeful of saving the child's life, doctors administered oxygen at ten-minute intervals from the time of birth.

Desportes will replace Matthew E. Hanna, who died February 19 at Tucson, Ariz.

The new American minister here will be R. Henry Norweb, at present counselor of the embassy in Mexico City. The Bolivian foreign office has given its agreement to Norweb's appointment. He is expected to arrive here soon.

sanctity of the law rather than pull down our legal structure. If there was anything to indicate a miscarriage of justice we could well understand his position and actions. Yet it is a fact that not one circumstance has developed or been offered in proof of the convicted man's innocence. Given the opportunity to tell the truth Hauptmann has steadfastly refused to do so. If he was not alone in the commission of this revolting crime it was up to him to say so, and explain away the damning proofs of guilt. But when one of the foremost criminal lawyers of the country dropped his case with the statement that he believed Hauptmann guilty, it does not augur well for the contentions of Governor Hoffman. If Hauptmann did not actually commit the crime he knows who did.

Indications point to the issuance of another reprieve by Hoffman, which will accomplish nothing except further muddy the waters and intensify an already bitter conflict between the authorities.

When our high officials array themselves on the side of criminals, it is small wonder that the law falls into disrepute and that our prisons are over-populated.

Third Ticket Is Studied By Farmers-Labor

ST. PAUL, Minn., March 28.—UP—The Farmer-Labor state convention tonight adopted a resolution approving exploration of the national political field to ascertain the possibility of a Farmer-Labor ticket in 1936 and definitely to support formation of state Farmer-Labor parties throughout the nation.

Third party agitators, who turned out in force for the Minnesota convention, hailed the vote as a victory that will give the third party movement sizeable momentum.

The resolution, however, did not definitely commit the Minnesota radical party to support of a presidential ticket in 1936.

France Seeking To Stop Retreat Of Gold Stocks

PARIS, March 28.—UP—France strove valiantly today with the aid of Great Britain to prevent another gigantic outflow of gold that might result in revaluation of the French franc.

The Bank of France raised its discount rate from 3 1/2 to 5 percent, the rate on bonds from 5 to 6 percent, and on 30-day advances from 3 1/2 to 5 percent.

Meanwhile the British equalization fund was operated in London and in New York to prevent further decline in the franc. It was understood that 150,000,000 francs ($9,879,375) changed hands in the London foreign exchange market as sellers unloaded in fear of franc devaluation. Francs for future delivery were quoted at a discount of two francs to the pound for one month and 4 1/8 discount for three months.

feet was expected early next week. Six river-front industrial plants and 20 additional homes were abandoned in New Albany, Ind., where a crest of seven feet above flood stage was predicted for Sunday. Riverside merchants prepared to close their shops and flee with other residents.

At Cairo, Ill., where the Ohio joins the Mississippi, precautions were taken against minor floods. Shawneetown, Ill., prepared for a crest of 44 feet Sunday.

50 DROWNED

A total of 50 persons drowned and 2,322 others injured in 46 counties of Pennsylvania last week was reported by Governor Earle's committee on flood relief. In Hartford, Conn., arrangements were completed for loans to several hundred shopkeepers who suffered flood losses.

At Cincinnati the river stage held at 60.6 feet, and weather forecasters said it would be several days before the flood recedes, allowing 3,350 families to return to their homes.

Although flood fears in Wisconsin and Minnesota were allayed by a drop in temperatures, rain and warmer weather by Sunday were expected to increase the danger.

Prosperity Is Around Corner For California

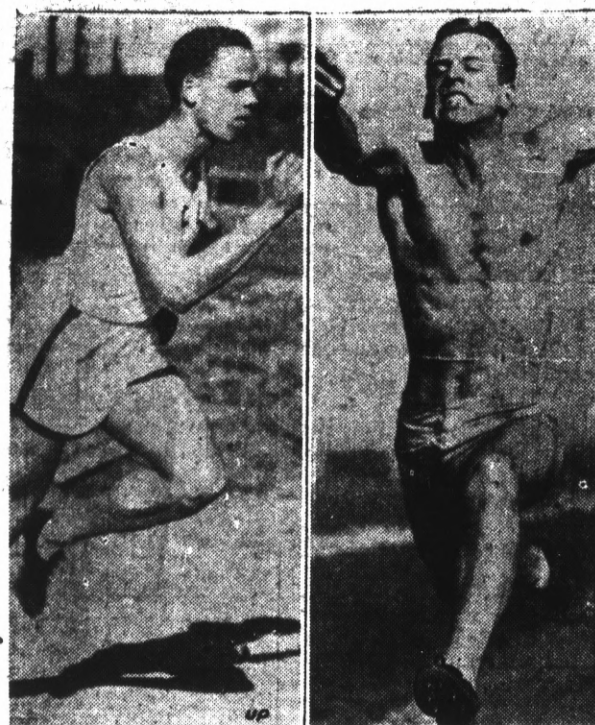

SAN FRANCISCO, March 28.—UP—California is "well on its way to prosperity," the State Railroad Commission said today in a statement based on the annual reports of public utilities.

These reports, the commission disclosed, showed increased operating revenues of electric and gas utilities, an increased number of employees, and increased payrolls.

All utilities, except waterway carriers, submitted very optimistic reports.

"From a survey made," the statement continued, "it is found that out of 23 companies reporting to the commission, which represent gas and electric companies doing over 95 percent of the electric and gas business in California, there is

The members of the law enforcement committee are D. M. Bradley, chairman, S. J. Chavers of Redwood, Mrs. Mary Bill of Richmond, G. A. Follett of Richmond and Dorothy Nichols of Pittsburg.
